Removes No Arms and Gives the People Who Have Taken the Trouble to Sign Petitions to His Saloon Every Hour of the Day Until Midnight Wednesday—The Mayor Insists to the Committee.

It was an interesting crowd that filled the waiting room of the Union league last night. The usual throng of members that congregates there was present, but there were mixed in a score from the great committee which is now leading the fight for the right to vote on the question of saving Sunday. The members themselves were divided into two factions, for the question of Sunday saving was forgotten in the heat of discussion which followed the announcement that Mayor Dunne had refused to grant the demand of the committee that Sheriff Lenge's saloon should be closed.

Each faction had its champions, and the arguments were loud and long. Those who had been working for the closing of the saloon were in the majority, and they were backed by the committee of fifty, which had been appointed at the mass meeting held in the Auditorium last night. Every one who had been working for the closing of the saloon was present, and they were all ready to do battle for their cause. Those who were opposed to the closing of the saloon were there in force

MR. GLADSTONE'S VIEWS.

Arresting Irish Sympathy—Chief Secretary Balfour Interviewed.

London, Nov. 8.—[Special to the Tribune.] Mr. Balfour, in speaking of the Central Committee of the National League in Dublin today, Mr. John Dillon made a very important speech. It was eagerly devoured in the expectation of Mr. O'Brien, M. P., of whom Mr. Dillon spoke in deeply touching terms. He concluded:

I have spoken at this time from the point of view of Mr. Gladstone and what he would do if he were in power. I have nothing to say as to the course of the present Government. I have no knowledge of what they intend to do. I have no knowledge of what they will do. I have no knowledge of what they will do. I have no knowledge of what they will

It is reported that Hart says, when the news came from Washington that the Supreme Court had refused to grant a writ of error, that "he felt like going into some wild region or wilderness where the face of man would never be seen." This is the first declaration this red-headed desperado has ever made which will be endorsed by the vast majority of the patriotic people. The further off he will go the better it will suit them. The sooner he takes his red flag, knife, and revolver and starts for such a wilderness the more they will be pleased. There is a magnificent opening for him in a remote wilderness, where he could shoot his friends and shriek for blood to the heart's content.

Commissioner Ayer called attention at yesterday's meeting of the County Board to the fact that some of the inmates of the county institutions at Dunning are in the habit of escaping to Chicago in the night, bringing articles of clothing the property of the county for thefts, and on coming interested. Commissioner Ayer quite naturally for one does not happen to be aware of danger to a sweet, peaceful home around the institutions. Perhaps a better and cheaper plan would be to deliver the dressed-suppers in the vicinity of their homes, which are to avail by the County Board. A photographer who will accept articles such as shoes and clothing from paupers for trade, is mentioned; he will prefer to those to take a license. The County Board should review the license of the photographers of whom Mr. Ayer complains, and they should not take any more money to.

One New York Independent, a non-political newspaper, charges that the Indian Bureau is managed in the interests of the Democratic party instead of the interests of the Indians, and that employés are appointed and removed, not upon any considerations of their ability, efficiency, or fitness for their particular work, but for what they can do for their party. The Independent, being a non-political paper, evidently is not aware that the administration long ago abandoned the reform of the civil service and has now turned its attention to the maintenance and extension of President Cleveland, so it does not rely for the management of the Indian Bureau but by the direct partisan interference of State officers and committees. It should have been aware, however, that the President not only wrote to Tammany expressing his hope that the battle-axes would be severely, but that he sent his check for $1,000 to be used where it would be most available, as his interest in his own city. Does the Independent suppose that the management of the Indian Bureau would be less moral or competent from the civil-service point of view than this?

Yesterday's election in Cook County resulted in a triumph for the cause of law and order. The entire Republican ticket was elected by a decided majority over the combined vote of the opposition. The Anti-Gambling Act, despite most virulent and bitter opposition, was adopted by a small majority in the city. The vote in Hyde Park and Cicero was favorable to maintaining, and the South, West, and North Towns voted in favor of the abolition of the gambling sanctuary. In Lake View and Lake, owing to the active exertions of a crowded field of unscrupulous officeholders, association free debauch, though not to such proportions as even anticipated in those places. The net result of the vote in the city and outside so far as ascertained is sustained by a majority of 10,000 people will be added to the population of Chicago. The city has no reason to be other suburbs a social bottle. Let it come in, as Hyde Park, Lincoln Park, and Brighton Park announced to do yesterday. It may be added that the prevention to have a per cent added to the amount of our million dollars in order to pay off the floating indebtedness of the county contracted under hostile rule was carried by a large vote. The new County Board will therefore have an opportunity to begin with the management of county affairs unembarrassed by a vote bearing a high rate of interest. The result, all around, is most satisfactory.

Wilson Scott Judge Gary's sweeping endorsement of the Democratic party instead of the interests of the Republican party, in the most significant feature of yesterday's election. The opinion of the voter was mostly in sustaining Capt. Black and in the maintenance of their position, made a distinct issue against Judge Gary's action in the Haymarket trial and in favor of a system of the strictest private-property. It is to be hoped that the Socialists are satisfied by the result. It is especially evident, even of the most rabid and fanatical Judges of the Cook County bench. The vote must be another's gratifying to all who value the security of American institutions.

Of course the election of an American Judge as Judge Longenecker to the post of State's Attorney is a guarantee that the good work done by Mr. Bryant in prosecuting public thieves and in bringing the ballot-box stuffers into the bonds will be continued. Gary's attorney Longenecker will be needed in the good work, for the new Jury law, if adopted, makes it still be one to obtain honest and powerful grand juries to investigate the work of public bodies and inquire into public-policy which is for protection.

The new County Board is to be composed of excellent materials. There is, indeed, a strong prospect that Cook County after the installation of improvements is to have an honest, economical, and clearly administration.

THE ELECTIONS IN OTHER STATES.

The returns from New York are sufficient to fail to leave no doubt of the result. Gov. Hill has been renominated for the Governorship, and the Democratic majority in the State will be increased. The Democrats have also elected the Secretary of State, Comptroller, Treasurer, Attorney-General, Engineer and Surveyor, and Judge of the Court of Appeals. The Democrats have also elected a majority of the Senate and Assembly. The Democratic majority in the State will be about 15,000. The Democratic majority in New York City will be about 50,000. The Democratic majority in Kings County will be about 20,000. The Democratic majority in Brooklyn will be about 15,000. The Democratic majority in Albany will be about 5,000. The Democratic majority in Troy will be about 2,000. The Democratic majority in Buffalo will be about 3,000. The Democratic majority in Rochester will be about 2,000. The Democratic majority in Syracuse will be about 1,000. The Democratic majority in Utica will be about 1,000. The Democratic majority in Binghamton will be about 1,000. The Democratic majority in Elmira will be about 1,000. The Democratic majority in Ithaca will be about 1,000. The Democratic majority in Auburn will be about 1,000. The Democratic majority in Geneva will be about 1,000. The Democratic majority in Canandaigua will be about 1,000. The Democratic majority in Penn Yan will be about 1,000. The Democratic majority in Hammondsport will be about 1,000. The Democratic majority in Corning

FORAKER'S GREAT GAINS.

A BIG REPUBLICAN VICTORY AMONG 20 OHIO.

Even in Hamilton County Every Value Are Made for Foraker and the State Ticket by a Majority of 10,000 for the Republicans in Pennsylvania—Pattison Makes the Vote in Montgomery—Returns from Virginia—The Returns from Louisiana Awaited.

[Table: GOVERNOR. / LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR. / SECRETARY OF STATE. / AUDITOR. / TREASURER. / ATTORNEY GENERAL. / SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION. / U. S. SENATOR. / JUDGE SUPREME COURT.]

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Of the primary gains are considered the majority of Gov. Foraker will go beyond 40,000. The Democratic State Committee concedes the defeat of Powell by 35,000. The majority on joint ballot of Republicans in the Legislature is being added to every hour. The splendid victory won by Gov. Foraker today is largely due to the presence of Gov. Hughes in the State a week ago, and at the same time a full recognition of the good and able administration of Gov. Foraker. The people are asking him for a place on the Presidential ticket next year with Taft. In the interest harmony the Republicans here stand ready to accept the entire delegation to Chicago, Foraker, Dick, Burke, Cox, Longworth, and all the 38 members of the Lower House and twenty-five of the forty-one Senators. Every clerk of a county county or church has been put to the Democratic and overwhelming the Republican majority secured on joint ballot. Politics has for years been very hot here, and to many years there and party has not attended enough for years that may not reflect a single vote cast for their candidates or interest. Chairman Cappeller says the majority for Foraker will reach 40,000, and his majority on joint ballot in the General Assembly will not be less than 75. Secretary of State Laylin has given out the following returns, which will be found correct in every particular:

The Democrats and Labor men made a fight in Cincinnati in which they agreed that Democrats should support the Labor candidate for the Legislature in return for the Democratic vote for Labor candidates for Sheriff and Coroner. The Democrats were unable to get the Labor vote for Sheriff, Bailey, there are 6,000 votes and prospects to the Bench, and to take the vote from Democratic Sheriff, Democratic, 40,000; Democratic, 40,000; Democratic, 40,000; Democratic, 40,000; total vote, 40,000.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—The Democrats claim a majority in this city of 1,000 on the Legislature, but the Republicans claim a majority of 1,000 on the Legislature. The Democrats claim a majority of 1,000 on the Legislature. The Democrats claim a majority of 1,000 on the Legislature. The Democrats claim a majority of 1,000 on the Legislature.

MAKEUPS FOR THE STAGE.

ART AND ARTIFICE EMPLOYED TO DO CHARACTER A CHARACTER.

A Study Here Changed, Not Lost, and Subject to Be Met on Provincial Boards—Hints on Actresses, Comedy, Tragedy, Gentlemen, Old, Negro, Gentlemen, Clowns, Old Men, Villain, Low Comedian, and Various Other Characters.

A Lucia Gale Gassaway: Paint and powder are commonplaces to the actor's calling, and are as much a part of his stock in trade as costumes, wigs, etc., to assist in disguising, every vocation has such aids, and it is useless with stage paint and powder to make a more perfect transformation of the features than some actors and actresses are able to do with a little practice, by using the proper colors and shades. Gentlemen, ordinarily, are not given to the use of cosmetics, and even actors, as a class, are not addicted to the habit, but there are many occasions when a little artificial aid is necessary to produce the desired effect, and the professional who is ignorant of the proper colors to use and the manner of applying them is apt to make a sad failure of his attempt.

Every actor who has to make up regularly—as a part, and the majority have to be more or less skilled with the use of paints and powders—has a box of such goods and powder-puff or those boys look as if their mothers had been caught in a fit with all of the paint contained on a dressing and had overturned the box in any style so as to mix them with stolen drifting each other and rolling together until they had grown so powdered and in mixed paints as scarcely to distinguish one from another.

Kirk's White Cloud Floating Soap.

As to the merits of Jas. S. Kirk & Co.'s White Cloud Floating Soap, witness the words of the late James S. Jewell, M. D., LL.D., of the Chicago Medical College and Member of many Scientific Societies:

"I have never met with or used a soap that more nearly" "fills my ideal of what a non-medicated soap should be." "Whether for medical or toilet purposes it is simply ad-" "mirable. This I believe to the first certificate of the kind" "(relating to a non-medicated article) I have ever given. But" "this is given freely, and in pleasurable recognition of the" "purity and entire reliability of White Cloud Soap."

SILURIAN MINERAL SPRING.

W. S. GORDON, Manager, Waukesha, Wis. W. S. POWERS, Gen. Agent, 70 State-st., Chicago. Telephone 1075.

We do not fill cans or bottles with lake water and label them "filled" or "bottled at the Spring." Neither do we follow the delivery wagons of competitors, and after a few days leave a can of water "free," telling the servant to "put that on top of the other can, it is just as good."

One reason for not doing these is that "we don't have to," and another is that we despise such sharp practices. If you drink Silurian you must pay for it, as we don't give it away.

LADIES!

We beg to call your attention to the five following reasons why you should buy Her Majesty's Corsets in preference to all others. Some of the five advantages here set out have accomplished in any other Corset. We have thousands of voluntary testimonials from ladies who have worn

HER MAJESTY'S CORSET.

Its the BEST, because

1st, It is the only Corset with Elastic Gore at each side of the front of Corset. Ladies without figure like it.
2d, It is the most graceful, accommodates itself to the motions of the body.
3d, It is the most healthful and comfortable. Will neither shrink or stretch, and the materials used in it are the best.
4th, It fits perfectly, always retaining its original shape. It is unbreakable, having a strong spring and steel down each side of front, and guarantee wearing and steel unbreakable.
5th, It costs ladies no more than other Corsets of inferior make, and is the cheapest Corset in the market.
